

Brown Bag Session
Education Policy and the Obama Administration

Friday, April 29 @ 12 – 2 p.m.
Conference Center, Rooms A/B
NCHE Building, One Dupont Circle NW, Washington DC

You are invited to attend WAHE's first brown bag session for 2011.

Zakiya Smith, Senior Advisor for Education at the White House Domestic Policy Council, will lead a discussion on budget cuts and their potential impact on college campuses, including how the loss of Pell funding could limit college access for low- and middle- income students. She will give a first-hand view of how the Administration is addressing these students' concerns as well as other higher education issues.

WAHE members and guests are welcome to join the discussion to talk about the impact on the ground-level.

The discussion will focus on:

- ❖ federal higher education policy post budget cuts
- ❖ the future of Pell Grants
- ❖ impact on college administrators
- ❖ the bridge between policy and practice

Contact Lynn Jennings (LJennings@edtrust.org) or Nicole Evans (nevans01@mica.edu) for more event information.

Space is limited. Registration is available online at www.waheweb.info or via EventBrite.com.
